Do you currently have an appointment as a GA or GPSI employee? YES NO

IF YES: With prior approval, GA's who are U.S. citizens or permanent residents may work no more than 7 hours per week in a graduate hourly position during the fall and/or spring semesters when classes are in session. GPSI students with the same status may work no more than 10 hours in a graduate hourly position. When classes are not in session and during the summer, GA's may work up to 37.5 hours per week. International students hired as graduate assistants or GPSI interns are not eligible to work in graduate hourly positions while school is in session due to visa restrictions. They may only work in a graduate hourly position at UIS during the fall and/or spring semesters when classes are NOT in session and/or during the summer for no more than 37.5 hours per week. GA fall/spring appointments are Aug 16th - May 15th and summer appointments are May 16th - Aug 15th due to assistantship contracts.

IF NO: Graduate students who are U.S. citizens or permanent residents and are not employed as GAs or GPSI interns, may work up to 25 hours per week in a graduate hourly position during the periods when classes are in session, provided they are enrolled in a minimum of 6 credit hours during each term of employment. International graduate students must be enrolled in a minimum of 9 credit hours and may work no more than 20 hours per week when classes are in session. During periods of the fall/spring semester(s) when classes are not in session and during the summer, all graduate hourly employees (U.S. citizen, permanent resident, and international) may work up to 37.5 hours per week.

GENERAL INFO: For summer employment, international graduate hourly employees must have been enrolled in a minimum of 9 graduate level, degree-required credit hours in the preceding semester or 3 credit hours during the summer semester in which they are working. International students who are continuing their studies in the summer or will graduate at the end of summer may work no more than 20 hours per week. International students who have met the minimum required enrollment in the spring and are not enrolled into summer courses may work up to 37.5 International students that graduate in May are not permitted to work in a graduate hourly position during the summer. All other students must be enrolled in a minimum of 6 credit hours in the preceding semester or 3 credit hours during the summer semester in which they are working. Graduate hourly wages earned during the summer are subject to the taxation associated with the tuition and service fee waiver if assistants are enrolled in summer courses and receiving waiver benefits.
